

Our Visit to the Katonah Museum of Art!

We are going to the Katonah Museum of Art, also known as the KMA. Every 3-4 months the art on view changes. We will enter the Museum from the parking lot through the front door.

When we enter the Atrium the reception desk will be straight ahead to the left. A Guest Services Associate will greet us and check us in. If we have a question we can ask one of them for help. The all-gender accessible bathrooms are to the right and left of us. The bathroom to the right has a diaper changing table.

Past the Atrium is the Marilyn M. Simpson Sculpture Garden. It is also a place to rest and sit at the tables or on a bench. If we bring a snack we can eat it out there. The tall trees are called Norway Spruce.

The exhibition in KMA's two main galleries is Jonathan Becker: Lost Time. To the right is the Righter Gallery which features color photographs. We can't touch the artwork in this gallery, but we can look at it!

The Beitzel Gallery is on the left and continues the exhibition Jonathan Becker: Lost Time. We can walk in and look around. This gallery features black-and-white photographs. We can't touch the artwork in this gallery, but we can look at it!

The Spot Gallery is before and to the left of the guest services desk. In the Spot Gallery, there are more photographs and a display case with objects inside. We can't touch the artwork in this gallery or the display case, but we can look at it!

The Pollack Family Learning Center is our space to sit and talk, read, and make art. When we enter the room, the plastic bins below the counter to the left have lots of fun materials for us to use! These activity bins include SILHOUETTE STORIES, PORTRAIT PHOTO COLLAGE, and more. We should clean up and return all materials to the correct bins when we are finished.

We hope you have a fun visit to the KMA today!
